Do Something Different: Discover Opera 2016-2017

Youth Art Competition

Announcing a Youth Arts Competition for area students 18 years or younger, inspired by the pioneering collaboration between Palm Beach Opera and Ebony Chorale of the Palm Beaches, CROSSINGS: Two Traditions. One Musical Heritage.

Palm Beach Opera and The Ebony Chorale of the Palm Beaches join forces to deliver a pioneering concert event that tells the story of Opera and the Spiritual. For one night only, the collaboration will uncover the musical threads that connect these two historically rich genres, showcasing significant moments in both musical worlds and bringing together communities through iconic songs.

Selected artwork will be debuted at Duncan Theatre (Palm Beach State College) on February 9th at the collaborative concert CROSSINGS: Two Traditions. One Musical Heritage, and the accompanying artists will receive two tickets to the performance.

The What

Youth Art Competition open to Palm Beach County students 18 years or younger. Private school, charter school and homeschool students are eligible. Up to 20 works will be selected for recognition and display at the CROSSINGS concert event at Duncan Theatre on February 9th. The artwork will then move to Spady Cultural Heritage Museum for a collective showing.

Artwork must be relevant to the Opera genre, the Spiritual genre, and/or highlight important persons, places, music, or ideas featured in the genres; artwork may also be directly representative of the collaboration and/or concert event.

For more information about the concert or for suggested inspirational listening examples, email education@pbopera.org.
